

Mrs. L.F. Spofford Retires From Library

The Trustees of Robbins Library announce with regret the retirement of Mrs. Lucinda F. Spofford as Head Librarian of the Robbins Library. After a 23 year long and eminently successful career in library work, Mrs. Spofford retires on February 9, 1951 under the provisions of the State Retirement Act.

Mrs. Spofford came to Arlington as Head Librarian in January of 1928 and has seen the Library under her direction grow steadily, increasing its functions and services as the Town has developed. During Mrs. Spofford's tenure of office, The Junior Library with its fine Children's Room and Hall has been erected, and the all in Branch at Arlington Heights has been built.

Mrs. Spofford came to Arlington from Attleboro, Massachusetts where she had been Head Librarian. Previous to that time she had been Branch Librarian in Somerville and in Milton. Always progressive and enthusiastic in her work, the Town will miss her friendly personality and her energetic help in all matters pertaining to library affairs.

Miss Judith E. Stromdahl, at present Head Librarian of the Weston Public Library, has been selected by the Trustees as the next Head Librarian of the Robbins Library. Miss Stromdahl brings to Arlington a wide and varied experience.

Jan. Draft Call Raised 26 Men

The Arlington draft board who had announced a call for thirty men for the January quota advised the PRESS this week that the quota has been jumped from 30 to 56.

The 56 men of whom approximately 19 are Arlingtonians will leave from the basement of the Robbins Library at 6:45 a.m., January 10, 1951.

The call originally issued for 30 men would have exhausted the list of 22 year-olds available for draft. The additional men may have to be taken from the 21-year-old group, draft board officials said.

It was estimated that to date some 100 men have been called for active duty by the board.

There has been no announcement in regard to the February draft call but it will be larger than originally scheduled due to the recent announcement from Washington, jumping the national quota from 40,000 men to 80,000.

Hit-Run Auto Caught After 2 Mile Chase

A Chelsea man whom Arlington police chased for over a mile Sunday night was arrested after he had struck another car at the corner of Mystic and Summer sts., and kept on going.

Anthony Godice, 39 Walnut st., Chelsea, was nabbed by Officers James Lyons and Donald Seabury shortly after he struck a car operated by Lorraine T. Jacques, 141 Main st., Reading, who was making a left hand turn into Mystic st., from Summer.

The Godice car travelling toward Winchester, sideswiped the Jacques car after she had made the turn.

Police reported the Jacques car received damage to left front end and front fender. The hit and run car was damaged on the right side, right fender, right wheel and end.

Two Injured In Pike Crash

Police of three Towns responded to an accident at the corner of Lake st., and the Concord Turnpike Sunday night where two people were injured when their cars collided.

A Pontiac sedan, operated by George S. Blood, 62, of 114 Upland rd., Cambridge, travelling east on the Pike collided with a Ford sedan operated by Claire R. Nolan, 26, of 288 Florence rd., Waltham, who was making a left turn off of the pike into Lake st., Belmont.

The Blood car hit the Nolan car broadside and pushed it off the st., over the curb and into the bushes.

Jean Driscoll, 17, of 24 Cross st., Belmont, a passenger in the Nolan car hit the windshield and received lacerations and bruises of the face.

Mabel Blood, 84, suffered contusions of the forehead when she struck the dash of her car. A passing doctor treated the injured until they could be removed.

The Nolan car was smashed on the left side, all of the windows were broken and the seats were thrown from their moorings.

The Blood car was badly damaged on the right front end. Both cars had to be towed from the scene.

The accident was handled by the Arlington police although officers and ambulances from Belmont and Cambridge responded.

Early Morning Fire Destroys Local Auto

Early Saturday morning a fire destroyed an automobile owned by Donald Bates, of 15 Cliff st., Arlington as he was proceeding up Gray st., to his home.

When he neared the corner of Gray and Buena Vista he noticed smoke coming from under the hood. Upon opening it he saw flames near the carburetor and attempted to smother them with a blanket, without success.

Bates rushed to a nearby home wakened the occupant and called the fire department. Ladder three responded but the car was beyond saving.

The flames melted the carburetor spout, ruined the engine and swept through the floor boards, destroying the interior of the machine.

Triduum For Peace At St. Agnes Church

A special Triduum of prayer for peace, to be held at St. Agnes' Church on the three days immediately preceding Christmas, is expected to bring throngs of devout parishioners to St. Agnes' toward the close of this week. The Triduum will be held in connection with the morning Masses, with special devotions on Friday and Saturday at 7 and again at 8 a. m., and it will conclude with a general Holy Communion for all participants on Sunday, Christmas eve.

This special devotion of urgent prayer to the Prince of Peace on the last three days of Advent is held in response to an appeal to the whole Catholic world by Pope Pius XII. and at the instigation of Archbishop Cushing.

Gov't Orders Town To Erect Air- Raid Sirens; Issues Signal And Bomb Disaster Instructions

Alert Officer Nabs 14 Year Old Car Thief

A routine check by an alert Arlington police officer Tuesday night led to the arrest of a 14 year-old youth who allegedly stole a car and plates from a North Cambridge parking lot.

Officer John Buckley spotted a sedan travelling along Franklin st., and stopped the operator for a routine check of his papers.

The youngster did not have a license or registration and seemed exceptionally nervous so the officer took him to the station for questioning.

He was reported to have admitted taking the car and the plates from another car in the lot. The plates were issued to Gerard F. McManus, 37 Chase st., Newton.

The juvenile offender was turned over to Cambridge police and was to have faced juvenile court, Wednesday morning.

Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hathaway of 15 Park circle, Arlington Heights, observed their 60th wedding anniversary Monday. Both natives of Fall River, Mr. Hathaway is a retired superintendent of repairs for the Fall River Fire Department. They have one son, Henry M. Hathaway of Arlington.

The federal Civil Defense Board this week authorized the States, cities and Towns of the nation to set their air raid warning systems in operation and released a standard method of signals to be used universally.

The Arlington Civil defense commission which has been waiting for the go-ahead sign, immediately notified the PRESS that for the time being the fire horn on the central headquarters station plus the whistles on all public and private property would be used to sound an alarm.

Five or six blast sirens used in World War II will be tested and erected at suitable locations as soon as possible. Dan McFadden, director of Civilian Defense said that additional sirens will be purchased if it is necessary.

The pamphlets on how to protect your home in case of attack by atom bomb or other type missile, and the volunteer cards will be ready for distribution today and should reach every home in town within two weeks.

John P. Dempsey, officer in charge of communications will make all the necessary preparations for the installation of the air raid sirens. When this is completed, a test will be held under the direction of Joseph A. Gaudet, officer in charge of plans and training.

The office of civil defense could make no estimate of time needed to check old sirens and installation. Notice of the test will be published in his paper when that time nears.

It was estimated that 3000 workers will be needed to man the war-dens police and fire auxiliaries. Deputy Chief Bert McGreevy, chief of the fire auxiliaries, said his department would need about 80 men to augment the regular force. The men must be between the ages 23

THREE PEOPLE DRIVEN OUT BY OIL SMOKE

Three people were driven to the street late Friday night when a defective oil burner spread heavy smoke through a two family residence at 55-57 Fairmount st., East Arlington.

Mrs. Katherine Mahoney, 50, occupant of the first floor apartment and Mr. and Mrs. James Gallagher, occupants of the second floor were forced from their home about 11 p.m., when a cellar oil burner became defective and started to flame. Fire apparatus from headquarters quickly extinguished the blaze and cleared the smoke from the home. The first floor apartment received the heaviest of the smoke damage.

DECORATED

Sergeant Paul W. Scanlan, brother of Mrs. Florence Nile of 21 Lafayette St., Arlington was awarded the Bronze star for gallantry in action somewhere in Korea, according to an announcement by the War department.

Rev. Maurice J. O'Connor

Rev. Maurice J. O'Connor, D. D., L. L. D., pastor of St. James the Catholic Charitable Bureau, chaplain for 26 years and a priest for 53, died Sunday morning at Carney Hospital. He had celebrated his 78th birthday four days ago.

During his pastorate he had erected St. James' Church and parochial school, the latter completed last year.

Ordained Dec. 10, 1897, he was one of the original directors of the Catholic Charitable Bureau, chaplain general of the Catholic Temperance Union of the archdiocese, and had been a spiritual director of the Boston Fire Department.

A native of Rockland, he attended high school there, graduated from Boston College and had attended St. John's Seminary in Brighton and Catholic University in Washington.

Following his ordination, he returned to Catholic University to complete his study for a doctor of divinity degree. While there, he assisted during summer vacations at various churches in the Boston archdiocese—St. Paul's, Hingham; St. John's, Roxbury; Sacred Heart, East Weymouth, and at Gate of Heaven Church, South Boston. His first regular assignment was to St. James' Church, Harrison av., Boston. He became pastor of St. Bridget's Church, Framingham, in 1917 and organized the Newman Club of Framingham Teachers' College.

Fr. O'Connor was appointed pastor of St. James on June 4, 1924, and in 1942 Archbishop Cushing conferred on him the degree of doctor of laws at Boston College.

He leaves three sisters, Mrs. Patrick L. Everett, aNtick, and Mary E. and Annie O'Connor of Rockland.

Father O'Connor was reposed at the St. James Rectory on Monday afternoon and was layed at state in the Church on Tuesday where four officials of death were recited.

A special children's mass was said early Wednesday morning followed at 10:00 a.m. by a solemn high funeral mass at which his excellency most Reverend Richard Cushing of Boston presided.

The mass was celebrated by the very Reverend Warren L. Kelliher, S. J., president of Boston College. Reverend James Cassidy, pastor of Holy Name church in Rockland was deacon and Reverend John J. Morrison was sub-deacon.

Master of Ceremonies was Rev. Francis J. Roessiter D. D. of St.

Winchester In Easy Victory

The Winchester hoopers opened their 1950-51 season Saturday night with a decisive 55-30 victory over Kennet High of Conway, N.H.

DiLoreto, right forward of the Winchester basketiers was high scorer of the evening with six goals, 2 foul shots for a total of fourteen points. The New Hampshire squad could not match their top man hitting one goal no fouls for a total of two points.

Bane Nears Record In Weight Throw

Tom Bane, former Winchester High athlete shot into the limelight as one of the foremost weight throwers of the Nation, Saturday afternoon, when he came within three inches of establishing a new world record in the 35 pound weight class as Harvard beat Tufts 60-45, in a dual track meet.

Jim Schlotz of Army holds the record, 60 feet, seven and three quarter inches, established last year. Bane, a Tufts senior chemistry student, not only broke his own record but gave rise to the prospects of a new weight mark in the making.

Credits Nile Perkins
This was the first Tufts meet of the season and Bane scored a 60 foot, four and seven eighths throw.

Credits Nile Perkins
"I can do it. I have the stuff in me to break the record," he said. "I've thrown the weight over 62 feet in practice, but have had trouble staying in the circle."

Bane, a Woburn High shot putter of sorts, never threw the heavy weight before he entered Tufts and met Nile Perkins, the one time weight champion from Bowdoin. Perkins—now an interne in Brunswick, Me.—interested the towering Bane in the sport.

"I owe everything to Nile Perkins," Bane said. Then he pointed out that it was Schlotz who snapped Perkins world mark which he set in 1940.

Bane naturally commanded the spotlight yesterday and he admitted he is looking for a spot on the '52 Olympics team. He'll join the N. Y. A. C. after he completes his schooling this Spring. Bane's effort was surprising indeed when one recalls that Sam Felton of Harvard spent quite a few years trying to break Nile Perkins' record without making it.

Ice men Drop Opener To Belmont Pucksters

The ice men of Arlington high, last years' runner-ups for top notch in the G. B. I. lost their Saturday opener to Belmont, 5-3, before a disappointed 2937 fans at the Boston Garden.

LACK of Practise
The lack of practise was alarmingly evident with the back checking practically non-existent, the goalie left unassisted when Belmont struck and each man trying to be a one man team.

Coach Eddie Burns predicted this would happen, stating his lack of funds to provide suitable practise areas would result in a poor squad. He emphasized that the boys were not to blame for the poor showing nor was he. It stands to reason that without practise no team can hope to compete, especially since the G. B. I. is such a hotly contended league.

B'g Upset
Earlier this year, we picked Melrose as the 1951 State Champs but a goal hungry, speedy Cambridge Latin sextet upset the forecast by tying a strong Melrose high 2-2.

How this happened will always remain a mystery for the Latins were not supposed to have a good team and Melrose, if you remember, defeated the Brown University freshmen, 4-3, in a pre-season scrimmage. This was considered a feat beyond belief.

31st Season
With this the 31st season the Greater Boston Ice tourney underway, the scores were as follows: Rndge Tech over Stoneham, 5-3; Medford and Newton played to a tie.

The newest track star on this seaboard doesn't know how far he'll eventually get with the weight, but he feels it will be farther than he did yesterday.

To top it off, Bane is a southpaw thrower. His 220 weight he considers ideal for the sport. Last season he weighted 250 and reduced 30 pounds with outdoor work in the Winchester Park system during the Summer.

RAMS TRUMP ACES
Friday night the aces of the Arlington Park Department league marched grimly to the West gym where they speedily and decisively proceeded to lose their opening tilt to St. Agns Rams, 23-21.

Wayne MacLeod was high scorer for the aces with 8 points.

"Oibe" O'Brien of the Rams kept the crowd roaring with his great display of basketball.

The members of the various squads hope that after the holidays everyone will attend the Friday night tilts at the west gym.

Christmas and Peace

Peace has been a goal of mankind throughout history. We are still seeking it.

that we may have peace. We pray that our leaders may be given wisdom and guidance. We pray for the success of that organization, the United Nations, that we have established for the purpose of maintaining and preserving peace among our nations.

All of these have not been enough. They are not now enough. We must do more than ask and pray that we be given peace. We must not overlook our own effort.

What have we ourselves been doing to bring about peace, to be worthy of peace, to be able to keep the peace, if we had it.

Everywhere in our daily lives we have discord and conflict. We find it in our homes; between husband and wife, brothers and sisters, parents and children. We find it in our school life, in our church life, and in our business life. We find it in our government; town, city, and state and national. We find it among the rich and the poor; the humble and lowly and among those whom we have placed on the very uppermost pinnacles of leadership.

It is not any wonder that we have discord, misunderstanding, conflict and wars between nations. We can expect nothing else; we can have nothing else given to us by our leaders—our government. Let us remember that our national life is, and can only be, a composite mirror reproduction of our individual lives and thoughts.

The year 1950 is nearly gone. its record of failure cannot be changed but it is now Christmas. It is that time during each year, immediately preceding the beginning of a new year in our lives, when we are once again given an opportunity to remember that many years ago our Heavenly Father sent his only Son among us to teach us how to live in peace. He was called the Prince of Peace.

It is at Christmas that we commemorate His birth, and it is at this time that we are again at the Cross-roads to Peace. Once again we have the opportunity to choose the road we shall follow. One road leads to Peace. We have tried all the others, let us now try the road he pointed out. We may be 1900 years too late, but let us try it.

As a nation we have won our wars, but we have not won our peace. Wars do not bring about peace. As a nation we are the richest in money and wealth, but after spending without limit we have not been able to purchase our peace. Money and wealth cannot buy peace. We have asked our leaders to give us peace, but peace cannot be imposed upon us.

Local Student To Sing Carols

Anita Taylor, 91 School St., Arlington, Mass., a student at Simmons College, will be heard singing with the Simmons Choir in a series of Christmas broadcasts over WCOP and WCOP-FM. As part of its Christmas programming, WCOP will feature the music of the Simmons group throughout the Christmas season and include it on such established shows as the "Record Rack" with Nelson Bragg, the "Sherm Feller Show," and "Keynotes by Bailey."

Peace can only be had if we build it, and it must be built from the ground up. It must be founded on the bed-rock of love and understanding, born deep in the hearts and minds of all men and women. The labor with which it must be built is the will and desire to get along with, to live in harmony with, and to share with our fellow men. The tools that we must use are the help we can give to one another, and the prayers that we offer in common supplication for the success of our mutual endeavors.

Through the use of these tools with each sharing in the common labor applied to the bed-rock, we can build lasting peace.

As we face the cross-roads this year while remembering the birth of our Savior Jesus Christ, let us solemnly choose the road to which he pointed. Let us firmly resolve that during our progress down the 1951 road we will earnestly endeavor to apply His teachings in our daily lives.

Let us start with harmony in our personal lives and our government, a composite mirror reproduction of our innermost thoughts and desires, will immediately reflect the change; our churches are ever standing ready and eager to help, and our God will grant us answers to our humble prayers.

We must choose God's war, and we must help ourselves.

Walter C. Sergeant, President
Arlington Council of Churches.

Telephone Early On Christmas

Make Christmas greeting long distance calls early, too—during the day on Sunday or even as early as Saturday—the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company suggests.

For on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day long distance lines all over the country will be crowded and on some routes delays are bound to occur, the Company says.

In its five-state area the Company expects a Christmas Eve and Day volume of long distance calls that may exceed last year's by as much as ten per cent. In Metropolitan Boston this means that operators will be handling some 50,000 calls to all parts of the country.

To meet the nationwide rush all telephone companies will adjust long distance circuits and operating procedures to the unusual conditions of holiday calling. This is made necessary not only by the high volume of calls but by the out-of-the-ordinary distances and places that people want to call, plus the fact that conversations are longer and answers at called telephones a little slower. Even "Don't answers" run higher than average. All of which eats up the circuits and makes for delays.

To Exhibit Paintings At Boston YWCA

Two Arlington women will be among the exhibitors in a display of Xmas paintings which opens on December 15 at the Boston Y. M. C. A. They are: Mrs. George Bradford, 31 Robin Hood Road, and Mrs. Lillian Watson, 152 Webster Street, Arlington.

All paintings in the exhibit were produced in the fall classes of the Workshops of the Y. W. C. A. under the instruction of Carl Nelson, Boston artist. More than one hundred oils and watercolors are hung in the lobby.

The exhibit will also feature pottery, created by members of pottery classes in the Workshops. Open to the public without charge, the exhibit will run from December 15 through January 1.

Urges Visiting Nurses Add To Their Services

Urging Red Feather services of Metropolitan Boston to think of the agencies as US, not as WE and THEY, President Joseph T. Walker, Jr., of United Community Services appealed to representatives of the 30 member visiting nurse organizations to strengthen their service to the community by concerted participation the year around.

Representing the Arlington Visiting Nurse Association at the first of a series of monthly meetings scheduled during the winter and spring to coordinate health activities in the 30 cities and towns served by Red Feather visiting nurses were Mrs. Francis Chamberlain, president, Mrs. Frederick W. Hill, Miss Isabel E. Hallett and Dorothy Leavitt, R. N., supervisor.

Mr. Walker who spoke informally at this recent get-together at UCS headquarters, Mason Memorial building, Boston, invited the group to make full use of their new community center. Outlining the three major functions of UCS, planning, fund-raising, and budgeting and allocating, he said "the patience of Job and the wisdom of Solomon" would be needed in the distribution of funds from the recent Red Feather campaign.

Alan Steiner, recently announced as chairman of the 1952 campaign, advised his listeners not to "have immunity from campaigns." He asked each agency to develop one particular plan during the year to further a successful campaign next year.

Speaking as chairman of the UCS Nursing Council, Miss Sophie C. Nelson, R. N., stressed the need of thinking objectively to give the best service to each community.

Awarded 25 Year Emblem On Cornell

James M. Daschbach, 21 Crescent Road, Winchester, has been awarded a 25-year Service Emblem by Eastern Gas and Fuel Associates, Boston, in recognition of his long record of continuous service at the company's coke plant and blast furnace in Everett. Mr. Daschbach is superintendent of the coke plant division.

More than 2000 employees of Eastern Gas and Fuel Associates, including many in the Greater Boston area, have received these emblems for records of 20 or more years continuous service with the company or its subsidiary companies.

Mrs. W. Suzan Speaker At Christmas Tea

A hundred members and guests of the Arlington Garden Club were in attendance last Wednesday at the Christmas tea held in the Robbins Library Hall. During the dessert hour from one to two, tea was served by Mrs. Stuart P. MacDonald and her committee, Mrs. G. E. Wilkins, Mrs. James Taurasi, Mrs. Andrew Magnus, Mrs. Frank P. Lansing, Mrs. George F. Fullerton, Mrs. Emil W. Erlandson and Mrs. John H. Campbell. The pourers were Mrs. Harold J. Cue and Mrs. James Wood. The hall was gayly decorated for the Yuletide party, by the following members, Mrs. George E. Rogers, Mrs. Francis J. Davidson, Mrs. George E. Ham, Mrs. Roy S. Crosby, Mrs. Harold A. Tenney, Mrs. Emmons F. Wyle and Mrs. O. Walter Swensen.

Mrs. John J. Cox opened the meeting with an address of welcome and Christmas greetings to all. Mrs. Arthur H. Pulsford introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. William P. Suzan who gave a highly entertaining talk on Christmas legends old and new and much practical advice on making of Christmas gifts, favors and evergreen decorations for the home. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Francis J. Davidson, Mrs. George B. Keogh, Mr. Reginald Bowman and Mrs. George Gottwald.

Christmas At Local Library

In the Junior Library the fireplace is hung with stockings. There are decorations suited to the interests of children and plenty of books. Christmas carols are being played in the late afternoon.

In the Adult Department Mrs. Edwin Tarbox has loaned an unusual collection of Christmas cards. In the small gallery there is an exhibit of books on art. Christmas greens on the walls add a festive touch with several beautifully framed pictures appropriate to the season from the estate of Miss Ida Robbins.

Both the Dallin and East Branches have Christmas decorations. Next story hours will be held December 30; East Branch at 10 A. M. Dallin Branch and Junior Library at 2:30 P. M.

Malden On Tap Waltham Out?

Football is not out of the sporting picture as yet. This week it was reported that Arlington has completed arrangements with Malden high to resume play on next year's schedule.

The Blue and Gold are to meet the Red and Gray in Malden September 15th for the opening game of both teams. This will be one week earlier than this year's opener, with Somerville.

Speculation has already spread as to whom is being dropped from the list. It is rumored that Waltham will be cancelled, for according to an earlier announcement coach Tozcykowski does not favor their spring practise.

Church Must Take Lead, Says P.T.A. Speaker

It is time for the church to take the responsibility for promoting real brotherhood. This is the crux of the message of the Rev. Oscar G. Phillips, Negro minister, who spoke at the Crosby P.T.A. meeting on Dec. 12. This was another of the Brotherhood programs which are being carried on for the second successive year by the Crosby group.

Rev. Phillips said that although the schools make an effort to help the cause of brotherhood, prejudice emanating from the home is in this area. He said that parents must help to lift the burden of prejudice but that the basic responsibility is that of the church. The Rev. Phillips is pastor of the West Medford Shiloh Church and a student at Andover Newton Theological School. Miss Tone Dugger led the youth choir from the West Medford Shiloh Baptist Church in several spirituals. Miss Dugger sang two solos, one of which was a Christmas spiritual. She was very warmly received by the audience. Roberta Emmons presented a dance and the pianist was Dorothy Johnson.

The hospitality committee assisted by the room mothers served coffee and cookies.

CHURCH SERVICES

The Evangel Baptist church, located on Pleasant st., near the Turnpike will observe Christmas in two services.

The Sunday school Christmas program will be held on Sunday, the 24th at 1030 am. There will be songs and recitations by the children with music and songs by the choir and stringband.

"A Sunrising from on High Has Visited Us", will be the sermon theme of pastor Reverend Harry T. Aramson.

There will be a candlelight service at 12:00 midnight on the 24th. The choir will sing and Reverend Aramson will talk on "unto you a Saviour is Born". The public is most cordially invited.

The Sunday school will hold its Christmas party on Friday the 29 at 6:00 pm., followed by the young peoples' Christmas gathering.

Family Sunday At Baptist Church

The First Baptist Church expects an overflow attendance on Sunday, December 24th for their morning service. It is expected that the congregation will fill the Sanctuary and Balcony and plans have been made to open up the Chapel and connect the loud speakers.

Christmas is naturally a family celebration so this will be the third in the series of Family Worship Services. The service will begin as usual at 10:30. Younger children may be left in Kinderkirk, but all children of Primary age and over will remain through the service with their parents.

On the first Family Sunday, May 14th, the attendance was nearly 600; on the second Family Sunday, November 19th, the attendance was well over 600. So family groups are asked to be early for this service so that ushers may find seats together for whole family circles.

Raffi-Curtin

Miss Rita Curtin, daughter of Mrs. Lionel Edward Curtin of Newton Centre, who announce her engagement to Mr. Charles L. Raffi, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Raffi of Arlington. Miss Curtin, daughter of the late Mr. Curtin, was graduated from Boston University, College of Business Administration. Mr. Raffi was graduated from Harvard College.

Cotter-Ryan

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Ryan of Arlington announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Rose Ryan, to Mr. George R. Cotter, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Cotter of Cambridge.

EVANGEL BAPTIST

Sunday, December 31
The Church at Study 9:45 AM
The Church at Morning Worship 11:00 AM

A Christmas Eve Service will be conducted by the Young Adults at 7:00 PM. Everyone is invited.

A Watch Night Communion will be held beginning at 11:15 PM.

The entire Morning Worship will be very impressive giving the true meaning of Christmas.

A beautiful White Gift Ceremony has been arranged by Miss Eda Knowlton, Director of Christian Education, as a means of presenting the Special Christmas Offering.

There will be special Christmas Music by both the Junior and the Senior Choirs. The Juniors will sing: "Cantique de Noel", a special arrangement of "Silent Night" with a descant by Louise Brown, and "We Three Kings". The Seniors will sing: "Glory to God" "Pastoral Symphony" and the "Hallelujah Chorus" from the "Messiah". Dr. Harvey Rittenhouse will have a tenor solo, "Night of Nights".

The subject of the Pastor's Sermon will be "When The Angels Were Gone".

Jenkins-Marshall

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Marshall of Arlington announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Amy Agnes Marshall, to Mr. Frederick L. Jenkins, son of Mrs. Marion L. Jenkins, also of Arlington, and the late Frederick P. Jenkins.

Armstrong-Wylie

Mrs. John E. Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Wylie of Arlington, was married here recently to Lt. Armstrong, USMC, son of Mrs. Amalie Armstrong of Burlington. The bride attended Indiana University, was graduated from Burlington College, and served as a first lieutenant in the USMC, during the war. They will make their home in Laguna Beach, Calif.

Schools Start Winter Hours

The one-session winter schedule for Arlington schools will begin on Tuesday, January 2, 1951 and will continue until April according to an announcement today by Clifford R. Hall, Superintendent of schools. In releasing the announcement Mr. Hall said, "It is advisable to inform the mothers of the afternoon kindergarten groups that it is recommended they do not send their children to school if the weather is stormy or they live some distance from the school."

In accordance with the schedule of previous years, the 1951 table is as follows:

A. M. Kindergarten	8:45 to 11:00
Other grades	8:45 to 11:30
Lunch Period	11:30 to 12:00
P. M. Kindergarten	12:00 to 2:00
Other grades	12:00 to 2:00

Christmas Seal Checks Due Now

It takes only a moment to write a check or slip some bills in an envelope. If the envelope is addressed to your local tuberculosis committee treasurer that brief moment may save a life.

Some of us neglected to take that moment to acknowledge our Christmas Seals when we received them in our mail last November. It is easy to put something like this aside during the busy, pre-Christmas days. But it is not too late to take a moment off to make our return for the Seals.

Funds realized from the sale of Christmas Seals are the sole financial support of the Middlesex Health Association in its work to bring tuberculosis under complete control in our community. The activities of the association include such worthwhile projects as monthly x-ray screening clinics, community and industrial x-ray surveys and Hospital casefinding to find early unsuspected cases of tuberculosis; rehabilitation services for tuberculosis patients and community health education.

Continuation of these activities may make the difference between life and death to some of our residents.

News

The emphasis is on growth and advancement. At a recent Parents Night a Tenderfoot Investiture ceremony was held at which the following Scouts were welcomed into the Troop: Ronald E. Fitzpatrick, Alan MacDonald, Richard La Belle, William Allen Wright, Arnold Bradford, Edgar Groome, Norman L. Wilson and William E. Buckley. La Belle and Buckley have passed their Second Class tests in Cooking and Fire Building; Ripley his tests in Trailing. There was great enthusiasm for a Saturday hike in which Ed Larsen, La Belle, John Lane and Peter Lane, Ripley, Buck, and Billy Whitney participated. John Lane did a good job on his meal for the First Class cooking requirement (he did not have dessert), so next time he will just have to "sweeten it up." He may have had that in mind and left it for the Troop's Christmas party to be held next week when it's a good Scout custom to "take the cake."

Pack 43, Cub Scouts, held its Christmas party during its regular December meeting on Friday evening in the Parmenter School Auditorium. A song prior, featuring Cub songs and Christmas music, was conducted by members of Den 5. Bennett Ashley played the accordion and Fred Thompson the piano. The flag ceremony was led by members of Den 1. Cubmaster Walter McCulloch, who was in charge of the meeting, announced that the next pack meeting would be held on January 12, the place to be announced. Boy Scout week opens on February 3.

Induction of nine Bob-cat Cubs was held around the camp fire of friendship, with Akela in the person of Committee-man Gordon Thompson present. They were:
Kenneth Alexander, Edward Brady, Craig Chapin, Eric Cosman, Lawrence England, Jr., Paul Fitzgerald

Paul Mancini, Donald Sahaney, and William Spiers. One cub, Jack Marshall, was received in transfer from the Maynard pack.

Awards in the Wolf pack group were made as follows: Edward Ashton, wolf badge, gold arrow, and silver arrow; Peter Jorgensen, gold arrow, three silver arrows,
Arthur Wyman, gold arrow.

In the Bear group awards were made to Jack Marshall, gold arrow and two silver arrows; Marshall
Newton, silver arrow; and Arsen Russias, gold arrow and silver arrow. Among the Lions, Warren Gironi received his lion badge; and John McCulloch his lion badge, a gold arrow, and two silver arrows.
Webelos was awarded to Stanley Masters.

Year pins were presented to Bennett Ashley, David Heuser, Stephen Moore, and Arsen Russias.
After an interview with Jack
Marshall, a member of Den 5, S.
Miss Alice Mifflin of Hale House was presented with a fine selection of presents to be given to the children who frequent Hale House.

Akela presented gifts to each member of the pack, delivered through the denners. These were Scout diaries.

Refreshments were served to cub members by Den 8, and to the parents by Bobcats.

Recognition of service were brought from the Council to Messrs. Blakeburn, Cavilicchi,
Thompson, Wyman, and Morrissey; and to den mothers and their assistants: Mesdames Marshall, Newton, England, Melville, Young-lof, Cleveland, Homer, Schwab, Chapin, Reid, Moore, Webb, Jorgensen, and Masters.

A Christmas movie was shown by Mr. McClure. It was announced that Den 10 won custody of the flags for the coming month.

A.H.S. Guidance Dept. Completes '50 Survey

The Arlington high school, guidance department has completed its 1950 survey of last year's graduating class and reported it was able to make 100% contact with the 479 members of the class.

This is the seventh annual survey taken by the department to determine what the members of the graduating class are doing.

Following is a brief comparison of the last seven classes;

Class	Empl.	Coll.	A Serv.	Misc.
1944	40.4	32.4	26.3	.9
1945	35.1	41.1	21.0	2.8

No. of those employed. 10.3% of who are taking part-time total education . . . 23 employed
No. of students taking 52.4% of full or part-time education. . . 251 total class

*Jobs have been made available to each of these unemployed boys but the refused to consider them because these jobs paid less than $30.00 per week.

In their choice of schools and colleges, Boston University was listed as tops with 20 students, Tufts second with 16, and Harvard third with 10.

The junior colleges listed as follows; Boston University General College, 5, Lasell, 5, Colby 3.

Business Schools; Chandler, 6, Bentley 5, Felt and Tarrant, 3.

Preparatory schools; Huntington, 4, Bridgeton, 2, Kimball Union, 2. Hospital training school listed Mt. Auburn, Cambridge City and Winthrop Community as the top three.

Five students are attending Wentworth Institute and Franklin Technical.

In listing the types of work the students are doing, the top five

Ford Co. Honors Six At Banquet

Comerville, Mass.—Six Ford Motor Company employees, whose aggregate years of service amount to 210, were honored recently at the annual 35-year banquet in the Hotel Statler.

The six honor guests, who joined the Company between March and October 1915, are: Herman N. Benovitz, 28 Seaver Street, Roxbury; Manuel T. Arango, 31 Cornell Street, Arlington; Augustine J. Goslin, 1015 Dorchester Avenue, Dorchester; Daniel J. Kelliher, 33 Montgomery Street, Cambridge; Carl G. A. Anderson, 9 Valley Rd., Medford; and Charles W. Burke, 153 Magazine Street, Cambridge.

Guests at the dinner included the wives of the 35-year men, eight active employees who have completed the 35-span in previous years, Plant Manager E. L. Duquette, Assistant Plant Manager James B. Holloway, Resident Controller Allen B. Cameron, District Sales categories were: General office work, 42 students, Retail sales clerks, 24, Business Machine Operators, 18, Stenographers, 16, Stock Clerks, 16 and Auto Mechanics, 10.

A small number of students were also employed in 36 other types of business.

Manager John F. Connors, Jr. and Industrial Relations Manager Hamilton Thornquist.

Highlight of the affair was the presentation to each honor guest of an engraved gold watch carrying the signature of Henry Ford II, President of the Company, and souvenir booklets recounting the events that have occurred within the Company since 1915.

The local Ford Company celebration is one of a number held this week by Ford plants throughout the nation in honor of 870 employees who have served with the Company for over 35 years.
